Introductory Remarks

The Iranian Academy of Medical Sciences was established over two decades ago, and therefore it can now be considered as a fairly young institution and God willing, it will move toward a brighter future.

About four years ago when the management changed, it was decided to have a strategic plan for the Academy. By reviewing the constitutions and the functions of the better known academies in the world and also consulting with the members of the Academy as well as fairly large number of experts in the field of public health the strategic plan was finalized. Then discussions about revising the constitution succeeded and a new draft was proposed to the Supreme Council of Cultural Revolution which, following a fairly lengthy discussion, was passed in January 2012 by the Council. On the basis of the new constitution and its new goals and duties, several new scientific groups were established and started their activities.

According to the new constitution and the discussions in, the general assembly concerning opening doors to all the universities, the universities of medical sciences were requested to furnish the Academy with lists of qualified professors as candidates for possible membership in the Academy. Finally from among those recommended by the universities as well as the Academy's scientific groups, a number of Professors were approved by the general assembly to become permanent or associate members of the Academy.

At present the numbers of the permanent members are 67, the associate members 80, and the honorary members are 31. I hope, God willing with the cooperation and collaboration of the members of the Academy and all the faculty members of the universities and health experts, the Academy can serve the country and the people in the best possible way by taking major steps toward the promotion of health in the country.
